

Use Chapter 13 of your We Believe text for Advent Scripture passages and information to design your own “e-greeting” to send during Advent. If possible, scan your e-greeting and e-mail it to family members or friends during the Advent season.

A large, empty rectangular box with a black border, intended for students to design their e-greeting.A rectangular box with a black border, containing ten horizontal lines for writing or drawing, intended for students to design their e-greeting.